

Assoc. Prof. PhD Ovidiu-Marcel MURĂRESCU
e-mail: ovidiu_murarescu@yahoo.com

Areas of interest: Meteorology and Climatology, General Hydrology, Climatic and Hydrological Risks, Water Resources, Regional Geography of Romania, Environment, Geography of medical resources and their use in tourism, Montanology and Mountain Tourism.

Education and formation

1990-1995: University of Bucharest, Faculty of Geography.

1995-1996: Master, specialized Modeling urban and rural systems, University of Bucharest, Faculty of Geography; Principal subjects/skills covered: Modeling urban and rural systems in the context of sustainable development, the impact of physical- geographical factors on human settlements, University of Bucharest, Faculty of Geography.

1998-1999: Documentation doctoral and master degrees; Principal subjects / skills covered: Climatology and Statistics courses, University of Aix - Marseille 1, France, coord, prof. PhD. Annick Douguedroit.

2002: Doctoral Internship, Hydrogeology, University of Thessaloniki, Greece; coord, prof. PhD. George Soulis

2004: Ph.D. degree in Geography, thesis entitled Water Resources in Carpathian and sub-carpathian area of Prahova River and its application, coord. prof. PhD. Doc. Petre Gâștescu, Institute of Geography, Romanian Academy, Bucharest

- member of European Climate Assessment & Dataset (ECA&D)
- member of ARPV (Romanian Association for Promoting Value)
- regional manager of the National Association of State Limnogeography
- indexed in international data bases (ISI, Thomson, Copernicus, Scopus, Google Scholar, etc.).

Books and chapters published (first author and co-author): 8. Published articles: about 90.

Participations to symposiums and scientific sessions:

1. International scientific events: France, Italy, Spain, Greece, Great Britain, Tunisia, Poland etc.
2. National scientific events: Târgoviște, Bucharest, Iași, Cluj-Napoca, Suceava, Oradea, Craiova, Tulcea etc.